The Future Life-By Wm. C. Bryant. How shall I know thee in the sphere which keeps

The disembodied spirits of the dead, When all of thee that time could wither, sleeps And perishes among the dust we tread? For I shall feel the sting of ceaseless pain,

If there I meet thy gentle spirit not; Nor hear the voice-I love, nor read again In thy serenest eyes the tender thought. Will not thy own weak heart demand me there? That heart whose fundest throb to me was rei given ? My name on earth was ever in thy prayer.

And wilt thou never utter it in heaven? In meadows fanned by heaven's life breathing wind,

In the resplendence of that glorious sphere, And larger movements of the unfettered mind, Wilt thou forget the love that joined us here?

The love that lived through all the stormy past, And meekly with my harsher nature bore, And deeper grew, and tenderer to the last; Shall it expire with life and be no more?

A happier lot than mine, and larger light Await thee there; for thou hast bowed thy - In cheerful homage to the rule of right, And lovest all, and renderest good for ill.

For me the sordid cares in which I dwell, Shrink and consume my heart as heat the And wrath has left its scar-that fire of hell Has left its frightful scar upon my soul.

Yet, though thou wear'st the glory of the Wilt thou not keep the same beloved name. The same fair thoughtful brow and gentle eye? Lovlier in heaven's sweet climate, yet the Shalt thou not teach me, in that calmer home, The wisdom that I learned so ill in this-The wisdom which is love-till I become Thy fit companion in the land of bliss?

This Brandy stands unrivalled in the Pacific and Atlantic States, and wherever known in this country is considered far superior to French Brandy for medicinal purposes. It is pure, as distilled from the Port and Spanish grape, grown in California, and contains valuable medicinal properties. It is a diuretic and stimlant, acting upon the glands and kidneys, and is preferred by physicians to other Brandies on account of its purify. It has a delicate flavor, similar to that of the Grapes from which it is distilled, and is coming into great favor among the first-class families in New York, Washington, and the principal Atlantic cities. The best connoisseurs pronounce it superb. For sale by WARFIELD & HALL,
